LET'S GO TO SAN ANTONIO!

ShowTime International and the Valero Alamo Bowl are looking for the most energetic, enthusiastic, and talented dancers and cheerleaders to perform during the Valero Alamo Bowl Halftime Show. This game boasts one of the best college football match-ups every year, and our goal is for the halftime show to outshine the game! Bring your performers to San Antonio this December to work with the best choreographers in the industry and perform at an event that averages more than 60,000 fans in attendance every year!

The 2010 Alamo Bowl is excited to have nationally acclaimed choreographer Michael Lemanski. Michael has danced professionally all over the world, and in the last four years has worked on halftimes for one Super Bowl, three Orange Bowls, one Gator Bowl, two NFL Hall of Fame shows, and the half time for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Michael has also worked with the touring companies of the Broadway shows Wicked, The Phantom Of The Opera and Hairspray.
